2017 DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES FOR CHESTER COUNTY ROW OFFICES

Primary Election May 16th • General Election November 7th

Patricia Maisano for County Treasurer

RN, St. Francis School of Nursing, Doctorate in Health Sciences, Sheffield University. Sole Founder & CIO of IKOR International Inc., a for profit company providing patient advocacy and professional guardianship services to the profoundly disabled and seniors. IKOR started here in Chester County and has grown to more than 70 offices in 20 states. Unlike her opponent, Dr. Maisano has the financial experience of successfully running a company and the assets of other individuals for more than 18 yrs. Maisano has conducted her entire business career guided by the core values of Integrity, Transparency and Trust which she will bring to county government.

Margaret Reif for County Controller

Degree in Economics and Finance, University of Scranton. Controller for a Malvern based non-profit. Manager of family owned small business for 25 years. Worked as investment liason at Vanguard. Community activist for issues such as maintaining open space and child advocacy. Margaret will provide Transparency, Accountability and Efficiency to the residents of Chester County by bringing a fresh eye to precious taxpayer resource allocation. As Controller, she will define strengths and weaknesses in county budgets, streamline methods of record keeping, and find areas where money can be saved.
www.MargaretReif.com and Margaret Reif for Chester County Controller on Facebook

Christina VandePol, M.D. for County Coroner

Bryn Mawr College, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. Board-Certified in internal medicine and endocrinology. Founded EnPharma Consulting in 1997, providing clinical research services to biotech and pharma companies. Teaches Human Anatomy and Physiology at Delaware County Community College. Active as a Chester County volunteer for over 10 years, currently as a tutor for adult English learners. Dr. VandePol's goal is a Chester County Coroner's Office that is accountable, ethical and engaged in the community.
http://vandepolforcoroner.com/ and http://www.facebook.com/vandepolforcoroner

Maria Crossan for County Clerk of Courts

Co-founder and VP of Fidelis Engineering, Inc., a veteran-owned small business in Chester County. Diverse background in business, healthcare and higher education. Maria has taken on many roles at West Chester University, from teaching to supporting student success and retention. In every new venture, Maria focuses on delivering the highest quality of service and care with smart, innovative practice. She will use her experience, talents and unique insights to serve Chester County as Clerk of Courts.

Paid for by CCDC.

Visit us at ChescoDems.org or Chester County Democratic Committee on Facebook.